OREGON DISTRICT LUTHERAN WOMEN'S MISSIONARY LEAGUE BYLAWS

ARTICLE I — NAME

The name of this organization shall be Lutheran Women's Missionary League (hereinafter referred to as LWML) Oregon District (hereinafter referred to as District) of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod (hereinafter referred to as "LCMS"). Any reference to "LWML" shall mean the national organization.

ARTICLE II — OBJECT

The object of this organization shall be:

- a. to develop and maintain a greater mission consciousness among the women of the Oregon District through mission education, mission inspiration, and mission service;
- b. to support the program of the Lutheran Women's Missionary League;
- c. to gather funds for mission grants directly sponsored or approved by LCMS, especially those for which no adequate provision has been made in the budgets of the District or the Synod.

ARTICLE III — MEMBERS

Section 1: Membership

- a. A woman who is a communicant member of an LCMS congregation is eligible for membership in a local group or as an individual member.
- b. Women's organizations within LCMS congregations, on campuses, in resident homes, or in other settings, shall be eligible for membership as local groups.
- c. One (1) or more local groups affiliated with the Oregon District within a congregation, on a campus, in a resident home, or other single setting shall be considered as one (1) unit.
- d. Women who hold membership in an LCMS congregation may form a local group in a setting other than a congregation, a campus, or a resident home upon approval of the Oregon District Executive Committee. The central location of the local group shall determine zone LWML membership.
- e. Individual membership is available to a woman in an LCMS congregation with or without a local group affiliated with the LWML. Individual membership is not considered a local group or a unit, nor does it confer voting privileges.

Section 2: Member Local Groups

- a. A women's organization shall be eligible for membership on fulfillment of the requirements in the Procedures Manual.
- b. The organization shall write its own bylaws and submit them to the Oregon District Structure Committee for approval as required in the Oregon District Procedures Manual.

Section 3: Individual Membership

- a. Application for individual membership may be secured through the Oregon District Vice President of Servant Resources.
- b. An individual member has the rights and privileges of a member within the Oregon District, including voice and vote at zone events, and may attend District conventions with the privilege of voice but not vote.
- c. An individual member may hold an elected office or be appointed to a committee. As an elected officer or in the capacity of committee chairman, she has the privilege of vote.

ARTICLE IV — DISTRICT ORGANIZATION

Section 1: Zones

The Oregon District LWML shall organize its units into zones which shall:

- a. promote the object of the LWML;
- b. serve as rally/gathering centers;
- c. elect delegates for the purpose of representation at the biennial convention of the LWML.

Section 2: Zone Assignment

Units are assigned to zones by the Oregon District Executive Committee but may request reassignment by submitting their request in writing to the Oregon District President for action by the Executive Committee.

Section 3: Zone Bylaws

Each zone shall write its own bylaws provided there is no conflict with the bylaws of the LWML and the Oregon District. Bylaws and their amendments shall be processed as required in the Procedure Manual.

Section 4: LWML Convention Delegates

The Oregon District shall be represented at the LWML convention by zone delegates. Representation shall be one (1) certified delegate from each zone having ten (10) or fewer units and one (1) certified delegate for each additional ten (10) units or major fraction thereof (A major fraction of 10 is defined as six (6) or more) as of January 1 preceding the convention.

- a. Each certified delegate shall have a certified alternate.
- b. The names of the delegate(s) and alternate(s) shall be presented to the Oregon District President for certification by the deadline set and received by the LWML Recording Secretary in odd numbered years.
- c. In the event neither the delegate nor the alternate is able to serve, a member of the same zone may serve as delegate upon certification in writing by the Oregon District President and presentation to the LWML Recording Secretary.

ARTICLE V — DISTRICT CONVENTIONS AND REPRESENTATION

Section 1: Date and Location

- a. A convention for the purpose of transacting the business of the Oregon District shall be held biennially in the even numbered years at a place determined by the Board of Directors.
- b. The Board of Directors shall determine the dates of the convention.
- c. The official call to the convention shall appear in the District publication twelve (12) weeks prior to the convention.
- d. In the event of a change of convention location and/or date, the Executive Committee of the Oregon District will grant approval.
- e. Conventions shall be hosted by Oregon District Zones on a rotation schedule as designated in the standing rules.
