

LWML OREGON DISTRICT STANDING RULES

Standing rules are adopted by a majority vote at any regular business meeting. They are amended by a two-thirds (2/3) vote without previous notice or by a majority vote with such a notice. They can be suspended for the duration of any session (but not for longer) by a majority vote. Standing rules cannot conflict with the bylaws.

Assessments and Vouchers

1. An annual assessment, based on membership, shall be made of each group and each individual member to the District Treasury.
2. All completed and approved vouchers, with receipts attached, for reimbursement of convention expenses are to be submitted to the District President no later than six (6) weeks after the close of the LWML Convention or the Oregon District Convention.

LWML Expenses

1. Expenses for travel, registration, housing based on double occupancy for no more than 4 days, and convention meals for zone delegates, one (1) District Pastoral Counselor, and the District President (those not borne by LWML) to attend the LWML Conventions shall be paid from the District Treasury.
2. Travel to and from local airports to go to or back from the convention will not be covered. Airport parking at the local airport is not reimbursable.
3. In the case of individuals using personal cars for transportation to the convention site that would normally be made by air, mileage will be allowed at the current IRS mileage reimbursement rate guidelines as of January of the current calendar year provided it is less than the lowest available airfare. Documentation of the roundtrip, using mapping software, must accompany a reimbursement request. Travelers may opt to request gasoline reimbursement in lieu of mileage rate with itemized receipts.

Oregon District Convention Expenses

1. Travel expenses for group delegates, District Board of Directors, and authorized standing committee members to attend district conventions shall be paid at the rate of thirty (30) cents per mile from the District Treasury.
2. Expenses of registration, housing, and convention meals for the District President and the District Pastoral Counselors to attend district conventions shall be paid from the District Treasury.

3. Registration expenses shall be paid from the District Treasury to attend the District Convention for the following district personnel: district elected and appointed officers, district standing committee chairmen, district appointed convention chairman and co-chairman. The District President has the discretion to wave registration fees for any additional personnel with the approval of the Executive Committee.
4. Expenses of registration, housing, and convention meals for spouses of our District Pastoral Counselors shall be paid from the district convention budget.
5. In the event a zone or group chooses to send a young woman, also known as YW, preferably 22 to 35 years of age, to the Oregon District Convention, all expenses will be paid by the zone or group or individual. A YW will attend all sessions of the convention.
6. There is to be a combined LWML District Choir at each district convention. The director is to be paid an honorarium and if music is ordered, it is to be paid as a convention expense.
7. The Oregon District President shall have the option to invite a guest/guests for a convention meal, if meals are available, and, if the convention can cover the expense, the option of waiving the registration fee. The President would confer with the Convention Chairmen and the Oregon District Treasurer.
8. The Oregon District President shall be allowed to request additional funding from member groups to assist with expenses for any Oregon District member nominated to the LWML Convention slate whose expenses are not already funded.
9. LCMS pastors shall be guests of the LWML Oregon District at district conventions and shall not be required to pay the registration fee. Housing and meals are not covered.
10. In the event the LWML Oregon District chooses one or two Young Women Representatives (YWRs) to attend an LWML Convention, all expenses, including registration, travel, housing, and convention meals will be paid by the district from the District Treasury.
11. YWRs who have attended an LWML Convention as Oregon District Representatives will have their registration and mileage paid to the Oregon District Convention to which they have been appointed to help facilitate the District Convention's YW program.

Executive Committee and Board of Directors Expenses

1. The Executive Committee, Board of Directors, and authorized standing committee members shall be paid travel expenses at the rate of thirty (30) cents per mile to attend Executive Committee and Board of Directors meetings from the District Treasury.

2. The Oregon District will pay for an overnight stay for our Pastoral Counselor(s) for Executive Committee and Board of Directors meetings in the event that such a stay is needed.

Zone Gathering Expenses

Travel expenses for the District President or her representative to attend one (1) gathering a year in each zone shall be paid at the rate of thirty (30) cents per mile from the District Treasury. The housing expenses, if necessary, for the District President or her representative to attend one (1) gathering a year in each zone shall be paid from the District Treasury. In the spring of the year, the zones incur the expense of additional travel for the District President or her representative at the rate of thirty (30) cents per mile.

District Information

1. All minutes of the LWML District Conventions, as reviewed by the appointed Minutes Review Committee, shall be sent to the delegates by September 1, following the convention. The Board of Directors shall adopt the minutes at its first meeting after that date.
2. A display of Christian Life materials, Christian books, and literature, reviewed by the District President, District Christian Life Committee, and District Counselor(s), may be exhibited for sale at the LWML district conventions, retreats, zone gatherings, and Christian Life workshops. Christian Life materials may exhibit for sale at the LCMS NW District Convention if permission is granted.
3. When a member of the Board of Directors has two (2) voting positions, such as Zone President and Standing Committee Chairman, the elected office has precedence over the committee appointment. Therefore, the second member of the committee shall be authorized to have the voting position.
4. The official district publication shall be published in spring, summer, fall, and winter. The issue immediately following the district convention shall include coverage of the district convention.
5. Publishing and electronic mailing of the Oregon District publication shall be such that the publication is received by the groups six (6) weeks after the article deadline dates.
6. The following rotating schedule of Zone host(s) for the Oregon District Convention is as follows:
 - 2026 — Emerald, Myrtlewood, Southern
 - 2028 — Juniper, Pacific, Willamette
 - 2030 — Interstate, Mt. Hood, West Hills

7. Mission grant disbursement requests will be accepted after November 1st of the year grants are adopted at the Oregon District Convention

Memorial Expenses

On the death of the current or a past Oregon District President, a memorial of twenty-five dollars ($25.00) will be given from the Oregon District Treasury to the LWML Endowment Fund and twenty-five dollars ($25.00) to the LWML Oregon District Special Gifts Fund.

Other Non-Convention Expenses

1. In years when special LWML events occur, such as when the Assembly of Leaders are held, the necessary district expenses for authorized district personnel to attend shall be paid from the District Treasury.
2. The Oregon District establishes an annual Zone President's Retreat under the supervision of the Servant Resources department. Zones are asked to make a thirty-five-dollar ($35.00) donation to cover mileage and partial registration expenses. The remainder of the funding needs will be taken from the Servant Resources budget.
